

Wisconsin people & ideas

The magazine of the Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters

The Wisconsin Academy's quarterly magazine of contemporary Wisconsin thought and culture, Wisconsin People & Ideas is an ideal advertising partner for educational organizations, art galleries, cultural institutions, and retirement communities. We publish fiction and poetry from Wisconsin writers, highlight new work from visual artists and photographers from across the state, and cover science and environmental issues that affect our people, lands, and waters.

CIRCULATION

5,000 copies, four times a year, available statewide through subscription, libraries, and distribution centers. 48% of subscribers are located in Dane County.

AUDIENCE

Highly-educated, lifelong learners who highly value our state's natural environment, growing creative sector, and literary culture. Wisconsin People & Ideas readers often buy local and support the visual and performing arts.
